

When Memory Fades, Music Remains: Tapping into the Power of Emotional Memories in Dementia Care

Presented by Jennifer Reeder Senior Director of Educational and Social Services, Alzheimer's Foundation of America (AFA) & Justin Russo Director of Programming, Institute for Music and Neurologic Function (IMNF)

Thursday, April 23
5:00 PM - 8:00 PM EDT

The Bristol Assisted Living at Massapequa
400 County Line Rd. Massapequa, NY 11758

This interactive workshop explores the powerful role emotional memories play in the lives of individuals living with Alzheimer's and other dementia-related illnesses. Participants will learn how emotions often outlast factual memories and how the five senses can trigger meaningful emotional responses. The session will also highlight the therapeutic use of personalized music as a gateway to emotional memory.

Event Agenda

5:00 PM

Dinner

5:30 PM

Brief presentations from our sponsors

5:50 PM – 8 PM

CE Workshop (10 min. break included)

Register/Learn More

To learn more or register, scan the QR code or contact AFA's Education Team by email or phone:
education@alzfdn.org
(866) 232-8484