

Music Has Power®

PROGRAMS AT LEHMAN COLLEGE

Opportunities for the Community and Lehman Students

Beginning this fall, the Institute for Music and Neurologic Function (IMNF) and Lehman College are proud to offer two weekly community programs that use music to support communication, connection, and well-being.

MUSIC HAS POWER® FOR APHASIA

For individuals living with aphasia and other communication challenges

Through singing, vocal exercises, and therapeutic music experiences, this supportive group encourages communication, self-expression, and connection. The program is offered in collaboration with the Lehman College Speech Therapy Clinic, bringing together music therapy and speech therapy in a unique interdisciplinary setting.

 THURSDAYS | 10:30–11:30 AM

 Lehman College
Music Building, Room 421
 250 Bedford Park Boulevard
 Bronx, NY 10468

HEALING MUSIC FOR VETERANS

For veterans seeking connection, creativity, and wellness through music

This weekly music therapy program uses active music-making and shared musical experiences to promote emotional well-being, creative expression, and social connection.

Participants can join the group in person at Lehman College or virtually, expanding access and creating a welcoming community space for veterans in the New York City area.

 THURSDAYS | 1:30–3:00 PM
